

Nottingham Forest asks Uefa about Crystal Palace's Europa League spot. Palace's owner also owns part of Lyon, which may break tournament rules.

Uefa says one person can't control two clubs in the same competition. Forest might move up if Palace can't play. Forest told Uefa their worries.

Palace won the FA Cup by themselves. Forest solved their ownership issues. Europa League games start in July.