

Two BTS members, RM and V, finished army duty. Fans are excited for the group to reunite. BTS paused work in 2022 at their peak fame.

Fans in Seoul celebrated RM and V's return. Some came from other countries. They wore purple and carried pictures. Hybe had a "We are back" banner.

In South Korea, all men join the army for two years. BTS members could wait until 30. The band started in 2013 and got famous in 2017.

BTS helps young people with Unicef, spoke at the UN, and is thankful for fans. They look forward to performing again.