

The UK and other countries have put sanctions on two Israeli ministers for encouraging violence against Palestinians.

The UK wants Israel to stop building on land that's not theirs and stop violence. They work with others to make sure those who harm are punished.

The UK wants Israel and Palestine to live peacefully as two countries. This is important for safety and a better future.

These ministers can't visit the UK, and their money is restricted to stop them from causing harm to Palestinian people.

The UK wants peace in Gaza and for hostages to be freed. They are working for a safe solution for everyone.