

Fans are upset they can't add names and numbers to the new Wales women's football shirt for Euro 2025, unlike the men's team.

Some say it's unfair and sexist against women's football. It's a mistake for fans and kids, say Haley, Ian, Emma, and Phillip.

The Football Association of Wales is working with Adidas and JD Sports to prepare for the Euros. Wales will play the Netherlands, France, and England.

Women's teams have faced problems like this before. Mary Earps, former England goalkeeper, had trouble getting her shirt made for fans.