

Why the Internet Stopped Working

AWS had a problem that stopped websites like Snapchat, Reddit, and banks from working. AWS helps the internet by giving important tools and services.

A DNS error is like a lost map. AWS couldn't find where to send people to apps or websites, causing trouble for many.

AWS is big and many use it. Some worry about relying on one company. Others like Microsoft and Google exist. Some want UK/Europe services for safety.