

Changes to Animal Health Rules

UK rules for bringing animals from Austria changed due to foot and mouth disease. Some exports allowed if they meet all conditions.

Foot and mouth disease is a fast-spreading animal sickness. It doesn't harm people or food. Farmers must protect their animals.

If your animals have foot and mouth disease, call the right people in England, Wales, or Scotland to report it quickly.