

Rachel Reeves plans to invest in the Midlands and North, not just London. Health gets more funds, but daily spending is still tight.

Plans like new railways and nuclear plants take years. £113bn is borrowed to help growth and make it worth it later.

The government wants companies to help. Changes will be slow. A balanced economy and faster growth are needed for the Budget to work.