

Meta AI users might not know their searches are shared online. They can keep searches private by changing settings.

Private chats might become public. Searches can link to real people, sharing private questions like medical ones without users knowing.

Meta AI is in the UK and US. Users can share searches, but only if they choose to. Some might share sensitive info by mistake.