

The UK government will share its money plans for the next three years. Some departments may get more money. Ben Chu from the BBC explains more.

People in the UK talk about energy, defence, and weather. In the US, there are protests about immigration and other issues.

In Scotland, a therapy dog named Louie is missing. In London, illegal cigarettes and vapes have been found in shops.

News from Austria about a school shooting and tunnels in Gaza. People share stories to keep everyone informed.