

Changes to Welfare Benefits

The UK is changing welfare rules. People with disabilities can try work without losing benefits. The system will be fairer and better.

A review will check how PIP is given. It will involve people with disabilities to ensure support is fair and meets today's needs.

More money will help people find jobs. New workers will support mental health. The Government wants to help people live with dignity and get support.