

Georgia Harrison got an MBE for helping stop violence against women. She worked on the Online Safety Act in 2023 to help women facing image abuse.

Her ex, Stephen Bear, was jailed for sharing private videos. Georgia visited 10 Downing Street to discuss image-based abuse laws.

Georgia teaches children about consent to help improve behaviour and hopes it benefits future generations, including her child.

Georgia helps women report crimes and works on laws to stop deepfakes, which are fake videos or pictures made with computers.
