

A man, aged 53, is in court for driving into a crowd after a Liverpool FC parade. He faces charges of dangerous driving and trying to hurt people.

Mr Doyle went to court in a black suit. He didn't talk about the charges. The hearing was 45 minutes. He will return on 12 August. Some details are private.

A crash happened on a busy day when people were celebrating. A baby in a pram was hit but not hurt. Over £30,000 was raised to help the victims.
