

Learning Disability Week

A Senior Community Nurse helps people with learning disabilities use medicine safely and follows the STOMP plan to reduce too much medication.

The nurse is trained to give medicine safely and make sure it helps each person. They follow rules to keep everyone safe and well cared for.

Nurses help make health talks easy to understand and plan better care for everyone in the future.