

UN News on Ageing

The UN Network on Ageing shares news about older people, meetings, events, and plans to help them worldwide.

The General Assembly helps older people by making life better and stopping unfair treatment.

Special days like the International Day of Older Persons help people learn about older people's needs and rights. Join events and share online.