

New Changes for South Eastern Railway

South Eastern Railway and Network Rail work as one team. This helps them make better choices, cancel fewer trains, and save £50 million yearly.

They are using drones and thermal cameras to fix rail problems quickly. They will spend £40 million to improve stations and trains for everyone.

The plan "Great British Railways" aims to make trains better, create jobs and homes, and build trust in the railway.