

Sana's New Start in the UK

Sana is a teacher from Gaza who moved to Durham, UK, to study at Durham University. Schools in Gaza are damaged, making learning hard.

Sana started a school for girls in Gaza. She taught English, maths, and art. She left her family to help and learn for Gaza's future.

Sana is in the UK with other students from Gaza. She worries about her family but is happy to be safe and hopes to bring change back home.
