

The FSA warns people with allergies not to buy chocolate from Dubai. Some chocolates might not have the right labels for allergens like nuts and milk.

Buy from trusted UK shops. Some Dubai chocolates might not have English labels or list all ingredients. This is important for allergy safety.

The FSA checks chocolates and works with local councils. They ask people to report problems. They also talk to allergy charities for help.