

UK Talks About Libya at the UN

The UK is worried about violence in Tripoli. They want calm and talks to solve problems. Libya needs political progress for safety and peace.

The UK wants to help Libya's politics. They worry about Libya's problems that could hurt the country's peace.

The UK supports Libya's elections. They want Libyans to join talks for peace. Local elections let Libyans show their support for democracy.