

Helping People with Disabilities

The Philippines wants PWD to have the same chances as others. They talked about this at a meeting in New York.

The government wants to help people with disabilities get better education, health care, and jobs. They also need help from other countries.

A meeting in New York aims to ensure PWD have rights and good lives. It ends on June 12, 2025. Countries should work together and listen to PWD.