

Hospital Ward Closing Soon

A hospital ward for people with complex learning disabilities is closing soon. Families are upset as they need more time to find new care.

The ward is closing due to problems. The hospital is helping families find new places for patients.

Six people, like Fraser, need to leave soon. Fraser has been ready for years but has no care plan. The hospital wants them to be safe and cared for.