

Helping Nurses Support People with.

Stigma means unfair thoughts about someone. People with learning disabilities often face stigma, which makes getting good healthcare hard.

1.5 million in the UK have LD. They often get sick sooner. During Covid-19, they faced more challenges. Nurses can help with better communication.

Learning about LD helps nurses. Using a Hospital Passport and tackling stigma makes healthcare fairer and kinder for people with LD.