

The UK is worried about violence in Israel and Palestine. There is trouble in Gaza and the West Bank. The UK wants peace for all.

The UK is giving £101m to help Palestinians. They want peace and for Hamas to release hostages and not be in the government.

Two Israeli ministers face punishment for encouraging violence against Palestinians. The UK and others are taking action.

Too many new homes are being built in the West Bank. They are against the law. The UK wants them to stop because they make peace harder.

Gaza needs food and help. The UK wants Israel to allow more aid. They are working with others to help.

The UK wants both Israelis and Palestinians to have their own safe places to live. They are working hard to make this happen.