

Israel began Operation Rising Lion to stop threats from Iran. This action targets Iranian scientists working on a nuclear bomb.

Israel's operation will go on until it feels safe. There are reports of explosions in Tehran, Iran.

People in Gaza need food and help. The UN and others are asking for help to send supplies.

Some hostages were freed, but there are worries about kids' safety. Life in the Middle East is tough for many people.