

Helping People in Syria and Mozambique

Many in Syria need help due to war and lack of money. The UN helps, but problems remain. Many hospitals and medicines are missing.

In Mozambique, children are in danger from fighting and bad weather. Many families have left their homes. The UN is helping protect children.

The UN says we need to care for the planet. Rich countries cause more harm, but poorer ones suffer more. We should work together for fairness and health.