

New Data Laws in the UK

New UK data laws will help cut traffic, speed up NHS, save on food bills, and help find better deals.

New laws help NHS share info, saving time and improving care. A map of pipes will speed up roadworks and cut traffic delays.

It will be easier to prove who you are online. This helps with things like renting a flat and helps police and social media work together.