

The FSA warns about Dubai-style chocolates that might not show allergens. If unsure, don't buy them and tell your Local Authority.

Some chocolates from other countries might not be safe. They might miss labels or have bad colours. Buy from trusted shops to stay safe.

Look for English labels with ingredients, weight, and a UK address. If unsure about allergies, don't buy. Report concerns to your local authority.