

Wynne Evans is leaving BBC Radio Wales as they didn't renew his contract. He had taken a break after apologising for a comment on the Strictly tour.

Evans is sad to leave his radio show but excited to start a new online one. There were jokes about awkward moments with Katya Jones on Strictly.