

Good Health for a Happy Life

Health is important for people with learning disabilities. Good care helps us feel good and live well.

People with learning disabilities may die younger. They can have problems like tummy trouble and diabetes. Getting help early is important.

We added a health chapter to the Good Lives Framework. We listened to people. Support helps us stay healthy as we age.