

A 1978 message in a bottle was found in Sweden. It was from Gavin Geddes to his crewmate Jim, a fisherman from Scotland who died in 1995.

Ellinor and Asa found a bottle. They shared it online to learn more. BBC Scotland News helped solve the mystery.

Gavin wrote the note. He and his crew put bottles in the sea from their boat, Loreley. Jim's sister, Sandra, said he would have found it funny.

Ellinor and Asa liked Jim's story. They want to visit Cullen to learn about the place and its people.

A simple message linked people across time. It was magical for Ellinor and Asa, who love exploring and finding stories.