

UN News Update

The UN leader spoke against antisemitism after attacks in the US and France, where a man was arrested in Boulder and Jewish sites were vandalised in Paris.

The International Labour Organization is meeting to make online work safer and better. Many online workers need more protection and good conditions.

In Sudan, attacks have hurt hospitals and many people. There is a cholera outbreak. The UN is helping to stop the disease.