

Bruce Springsteen surprised fans by bringing Sir Paul McCartney on stage in Liverpool. Fans loved seeing the two music legends perform together.

Sir Paul sang "Can't Buy Me Love" with a friend in his hometown. Fans said the show was "unbelievable" and a "privilege" to see.

Before the concert, stars visited a Liverpool arts school. They talked to students and shared stories. The school called it an "incredible day."

Springsteen's Liverpool concert is part of his tour. He will also play in Berlin and Milan. He is famous for "Born In The USA" and UK hits.