

Robot Dogs at Lincolnshire Show

Robot dogs were shown at the Lincolnshire Show. They talked about clean energy, new jobs, and fusion. Many visitors liked the robot dogs.

The STEP programme will build a fusion power plant where a coal station was. This will bring new jobs and skills. Local leaders are excited.

The STEP project makes green energy with a Spherical Tokamak. It helps industries and the world. You can help name the robot dogs.