

HMS Lancaster, a Royal Navy ship, stopped a boat with £30 million of illegal drugs in the Middle East. The crew found 80 packages of heroin and hashish.

The Royal Marines used a helicopter and drones to find a boat with drugs. The Armed Forces Minister praised them for stopping the drugs.

HMS Lancaster, a Type 23 frigate, helps keep Middle East seas safe. The crew rescued kittens and helps stop crime.