

June

4

Things That Happened on June 4

In 1784, Élisabeth Thible was the first woman to fly in a hot air balloon. In 1944, the US Navy caught a German submarine, U-505.

In 1974, a baseball game stopped due to drunk fans. In 1989, Ali Khamenei became the Supreme Leader of Iran after the previous leader died.

June 4 is Trianon Treaty Day in Romania. It marks a 1920 treaty after World War I that changed borders and affected many countries.