

Keir Starmer's Leadership Challenge

Some friends of Sir Keir Starmer worry he might lose his job as Labour leader. Some in the party think a new leader could help in elections.

Some think Wes Streeting or Ed Miliband could lead Labour. Others worry changing leaders now might cause problems for the party and country.

Some support Sir Keir to lead Labour to win. Others in the party are unsure and think changes are needed quickly.