

Coco Gauff won the French Open in 2025. She is the first American winner since Serena Williams in 2015.

Gauff's win was special. She beat Aryna Sabalenka after losing the first set. A note about winning the 2025 French Open helped her believe in herself.

Gauff's coach helped her trust herself and play better. She never gives up and is strong in her mind, winning many matches.

Gauff had tough times. She didn't always win. She and her coach worked on her game, focusing on serving better and being more aggressive.

Gauff is a strong tennis player. She worked hard and never gave up, turning tears into joy.