

New Video on Eye Tests

SeeAbility made a video for Learning Disability Week. It shows why eye tests are important for people with learning disabilities.

The video helps people with learning disabilities understand eye tests, getting glasses, and living with sight loss. It shares key messages about eye.

Grace McGill says the video reminds us to care for our eyes. The theme is "Do you see me?", valuing people with learning disabilities.