

Charlie Bracken and Will Porter are in an England rugby camp. Bracken is new, and Porter plays for England A. They join as others are busy or hurt.

George and Immanuel are at camp to get fit. England will play France before their summer tour.

The team has new players. Some are busy with other matches, and some, like Harry Randall, are hurt and can't play.

The camp at Pennyhill Park helps players get ready. England will pick a team for a tour in Argentina and a match in Washington, USA.
