

Care Home Needs to Improve

A Linthorpe care home needs to improve. Some people with learning disabilities and autism sat for long times without doing anything.

Staff were kind. People had no choices or activities. The home was not fit for people with learning disabilities. Leadership was rated "inadequate".

More staff were hired, but needs weren't met. People liked staff and activities, but those with limited speech weren't engaged. The home broke rules.