

Cologne is moving 20,500 people to safety while experts make safe three old World War Two bombs found in a busy area.

People in hospital get help to leave. Roads, trains, museums, and hotels are shut. The city has places for those with nowhere to go.

Stay calm. Take your ID and medicine. Bombs will be made safe once everyone leaves. Some weddings moved to a new place.