

Great News for Health Checks

In North East Lincolnshire, 82% of people with learning disabilities had health checks, better than the NHS target of 75%.

Annual health checks help find problems early. Doctors check weight, blood pressure, and talk about medicine and lifestyle.

Success is from hard work by doctors, carers, and families. Everyone should have a health check every year to stay healthy.