

New Directors for Housing Regulator

Two new people will help guide the Regulator of Social Housing for three years starting in 2025.

The Regulator of Social Housing checks housing providers give good service and manage money well. New directors will help improve homes and services.

Baroness Taylor and Bernadette Conroy welcomed new directors. David knows finance, Chan has led changes. They aim to improve social housing.