

South Africa won the World Test Championship, beating Australia by five wickets at Lord's. Aiden Markram scored 136 runs.

Australia's Pat Cummins and Mitchell Starc tried hard, but South Africa won with David Bedingham and Kyle Verreynne scoring the final runs.

South African fans were happy when their team won. Markram scored a hundred. Australia tried hard, but South Africa was too strong.

South Africa won the World Test Championship. They join New Zealand and Australia as champions. This ends their long wait for a big cricket win.