

11 people died in a crowd crush outside a cricket stadium in Bengaluru, India. Police arrested four people, and more arrests may happen.

Five police officers were suspended. The stadium was too small for the crowd. Legal action is being taken, and a report is requested.