

In 2019, two men stole a gold toilet worth £4.8 million from Blenheim Palace after a party. It was part of an art show.

Two men were caught and sent to jail. One got four years, the other two years and three months. One had been in trouble before.

Sheen sold gold and called it "car" in messages. Police found his DNA and messages on his phone, which helped catch him.

The police took a long time due to the pandemic. They arrested 12 people. It took four years to charge Sheen and Jones.
