

The Prime Minister met families to plan gardens for Bebe, Elsie, and Alice. The government will help pay for the gardens.

The Prime Minister praised families for being brave. He said the gardens will be great for kids and everyone. The government will pay for the project.

Many people support the plans. The gardens will honour the girls and be loved by many families.