

Prime Minister Talks to King of Jordan

The Prime Minister and King Abdullah II talked about Iran. They agree Iran should not have nuclear weapons and want a peaceful solution.

They talked about Gaza. They want a ceasefire to help people. The Prime Minister supports King Abdullah and wants the Middle East to be stable.

The Prime Minister's Office wants to use cookies to improve services and understand website use.