

England women won all matches against West Indies. They won the last match in Taunton, even though it rained.

England took three quick wickets. Sciver-Brunt scored many runs and amazing catches helped England win.