

Talking About Health at NHS ConfedExpo

At NHS ConfedExpo 2025, they talked about better health care for minoritised ethnic people with a learning disability.

They shared stories about healthcare for people with learning disabilities from minority backgrounds and made a video and leaflet on health checks.

Jabeer Butt OBE says it's shocking that people with learning disabilities die younger. New health checks might help fix this.