

Garden Centre Closure Upsets Many

A garden centre in West London run by volunteers with learning disabilities is closing. People are upset as they wanted it to stay open.

Many people protested outside the meeting. MPs and councillors joined, wanting the council to talk with volunteers and families before deciding.

The council will close the garden centre to save money. Volunteers will move to new places by July 2025.